

Appendix

Further Resources

In compiling this guidebook, we made use of many external resources, materials and sources of information, ideas, concepts and examples. Listed below are the main references used in compiling this guidebook. We wish to thank them for their willingness to be included and highly recommend them as additional educational sources to refer to, in addition to this guide, for any groups or individuals getting started or wishing to advance their community planning or development process.

Each section will note the original source.

The Ag Development Guidebook

"Building Common Ground" - National 4-H Council

"Building Community" Ptapchuk, Crocker, Schechter, & Boogaard

"Building Communities from the Inside Out" - Kretzman, McKnight

Center for Consensual Democracy

David Church, AICP

"Community Training" - AICP Video Training - American Planning Association

Community Development Society

Community Services Act

John Conglose – Ohio State University Extension

Cornell Cooperative Extension - Tompkins County

Cornell Cooperative Extension – CEV program work team

Larry Dickerson - Creating Healthy Human Habitats

David Darling - Kansas State University Cooperative Extension Service

"Economic Renewal Guide" - Rocky Mountain Institute

Family Community Leadership – Cornell Cooperative Extension

"Harnessing The Power of Vision" - University of Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service

Harvesting Hometown Jobs - National Center for Small Communities

Francis Higdon – Penn State Cooperative Extension

Marketingteacher.com

“Measuring Community Capacity Building” – The Aspen Institute

“Methods for Policy Education” - Verne House

Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation

Town of Newfield, NY

North Central Regional Center for Rural Development – Iowa State University

Penn State University - College of Agricultural Sciences - Cooperative Extension

Scott Peters - Cornell University

Mark Peterson – University of Arkansas Cooperative Extension Service

"Preserving Rural Character through Agriculture" - University of New Hampshire Cooperative Extension

Quality Communities Task Force – Recommendations & Principles

“Rebuilding Upstate New York: What works” - Jack Jensen, Neighborhood Reinvestment Center. Nov. 1999

"The Skilled Facilitator" - Roger M. Schwarz

“Small Town Rural Development” – Cornelia Flora & Vicki Luther

State of New York, Office of Lieutenant Governor

SUNY – ESF

“Vision To Action” – North Central Regional Center for Rural Development

There are many other resources and organizations that could be useful to those leading community groups or facilitating planning efforts involved in community development. A short list (nowhere near comprehensive) is provided below:

Other resources to be listed

Websites
Publications
Organizations